Nationwide Title Clearing Supports Local Teens Through Donations

Donated formal wear will be made available to underprivileged teens in time for prom season.

PALM HARBOR, FL—April 28, 2011—Nationwide Title Clearing (NTC), a leading post closing services provider for the residential mortgage industry, announced today that it has participated as a company in an important charity drive that will see young people across the Tampa Bay area attending spring prom events in formal clothing. The company donated 42 prom dresses and a variety of suits, shirts and formal shoes to the Tarpon Springs Boys and Girls Club.

“We asked our employees to open up their closets and look for any formal wear that could benefit underprivileged teens in Pinellas County,” said Erika Lance, senior vice president at Nationwide Title Clearing. “Why let our beautiful gowns go to waste when there are many girls out there who would love to wear one to a prom? We feel that every teen girl should be able to have a beautiful gown for their prom, and many of our employees were happy to answer the call for donations.”

James Clark, Director of the Tarpon Springs Boys and Girls Club, expressed appreciation for the donation and promised to put them to good use at clubs across the county.

Nationwide Title Clearing has a corporate culture of working with company employees to support the local community and charities whenever possible. This event was just the most recent example of the company answering a call for help from its community. More examples can be found on the company’s blog at <http://www.ntcpeople.blogspot.com>.
